CORAM: A.M.KHANWILKAR, J.

APRIL 7, 2006.

P.C.

1. This is yet another application which, though filed in time, has been placed by the Registry before the Court for orders. Instead, as per the High Court Rules, it should have been placed before the Registrar. The Officer Mr.R.P.Deshpande who is present in Court assures that in future, proper scrutiny will be made of all the applications for bringing on record heirs and legal representatives of deceased parties and if the same are in time, will be placed before the Registrar. That assurance is accepted.

2. The Registrar (Judicial) is directed to issue appropriate circular to all concerned that in future, such applications be placed before the Registrar as per the High Court Rules, so that, the Court's time is not unnecessarily wasted on these routine matters.

3. As mentioned earlier, as this Application is in time, the same is granted in terms of prayer clause (a). Amendment to be carried out within two weeks from today.
